The Form of the Prince of Hesse D'Armstadt's Grants of Houses in the Garrison of Gibraltar, translated from the original Spanish.

George by the Grace of God Landgrave of Hesse, Prince of Armstadt, Knight of the famous order of the Golden Fleece, Gentleman of the Bedchamber to His Catholick Majesty and His Vicar General of the Crown of Aragon.

Whereas the King our Lord, whom God preserve, was pleased to order us to Appropriate to his Royal Revenues, the houses and effects of the Inhabitants of this City of Gibraltar, who wanting in their due obedience to their lawful King, abandoned the said houses and effects to adhere to the party of the Usurper of His Crown of Spain, at the time, that the just Arms of His Majesty took possession, And his Austrian bounty, desiring to reward his faithfull Vassals & Subjects, who complying with their Duty, remained in the City, as also to recompense the damages, prejudices and losses which they have suffered in the conjuncture of a long Siege. We in the execution of the Royal Orders, and regarding the representation of . . . A B . . . which he hath made to us, of having served His Majesty on all occasions with the zeal proper to his obligation, and executed all which was ordered him for that effect, Grant to the said A B the house which was of C D in the street called . . . after the manner that the said A B in virtue of this our donation, may possess, inhabit, or sell it, as owner & proprietor of it, without being molested by anybody at any time, or by any pretension, reserving only the taxes, and rights to which shall appear the Churches have in it, as also the rights which belong to His Majesty: In witness whereof we have signed the present despatch sealed with the Seal of our Arms in Gibraltar the day of 1705

George Landgrave of Hesse
By His Highness's Command
Francisco de las Amihana (?) Secry.

Form of Colo. Kane's Grants for building on new foundations

Richard Kane Esq. Colonel of one of His Majesty's Regiments of Foot, & Commander in Chief of His Majesty's City and Garrison of Gibraltar

Whereas the Commander in Chief in His Majesty's City of Gibraltar being impowered to make Grants of the wast ground of that City to all such Subjects of Great Britain as shall build and improve upon the same is set forth on the other side in the memorial of A B, I have thought it for His Majesty's Service, and for the good of the place that the improvements should be made which is there proposed, And therefore I do by the Authority aforesaid hereby give and grant unto the said A B, to be enjoyed by him, his heirs, Executors, Administrators, or assigns forever, the sole possession of all the grounds, or premises which he has desired by the said memorial to be granted and established to him, upon which he is to build convenient houses, in as short a time as he can with conveniency, and as that building must be expensive from the great quantity of Rubbish that must be removed from thence to make room for the Building, and as an encouragement to his speedy building upon the premises, it is hereby promised that no part of the said buildings shall be taken from him for quartering the Troops during the time the time that I shall command here, and hereby recommend that the same dispensation may be continued to A B by the Officer who shall succeed me in the command of the Garrison.

Given at Gibraltar &ca.

Richd. Kane
